

REVIEW QUESTIONS LESSON 9

- Basic personal protective equipment for ATV operators include:
 - Helmet, eye protection, gloves, heavy boots
 - Helmet, seat belt, gloves, rubber boots
 - Helmet, ROPS, eye protection, rain gear
 - Helmet, safety hitch pin, chemical goggles, SMV
- What is the single most important personal protective device for an ATV operator?
 - Gloves
 - Shin guards
 - Helmet
 - Goggles
- Traversing with an ATV means:
 - Backing up a hill
 - Riding across the sides (slope) of a hill in a zig-zag motion
 - Going down a hill
 - Climbing a steep hill
- One third of all ATV injuries are caused by:
 - Exhaust burns
 - Riding double
 - Rear-end collisions
 - Going too slow on public roadways
- Which of the following would NOT be a proper clothing item to wear when riding an ATV?
 - Work type shoes
 - Short sleeve shirt
 - Helmet
 - Jacket
- When riding an ATV over an obstacle, such as a small log, the operator should:
 - Speed up to jump the log
 - Sit down on the seat to ensure he or she doesn't fall off
 - Stand up so that his or her legs and arms absorb the impact
 - None of the above
- ATV fit guidelines refer to:
 - Guidelines to ensure that the ATV fits in the bed of a pickup truck
 - Guidelines to ensure that the ATV operator is the proper size to safely operate the ATV
 - Guidelines to ensure that the operator's ATV helmet is the correct size
 - Guidelines on the proper height for garage and shed doors
- There are no restrictions on the size (engine cc) of ATVs operated by youth ____ years of age and older.
 - 10
 - 12
 - 14
 - 16
- It is safe to operate ATVs on public roads.
 - True
 - False
- SIPDE is an acronym to help operators of ATVs and UTVs ride in a safe manner. The "S" in SIPDE stands for:
 - Secure
 - Stand
 - Sit
 - Scan